America's Martyred Presidents.

Abraham Lincoln.
James A. Garfield.
William McKinley.

Abraham Lincoln, the sixteenth President of the United States, was born February 12, 1809, in Hardin county, Kentucky; was elected President in 1860, was re-elected in 1864 and was shot by John Wilkes Booth in Ford theatre, Washington, April 14, 1865. He died from his wound the following day.

James A. Garfield, the twentieth President of the United States, was born at Orange, Cuyahoga county, Ohio, November 19, 1831; was elected President in 1880 and was shot in the Baltimore & Potomac depot, Washington, July 2, 1881, by Charles J. Guiteau. From the wound inflicted, died September 19, 1881.

William McKinley, twenty-fifth President of the United States, was born at Niles, Ohio, 1843; was elected President in 1896, was re-elected in 1900 and was shot at the Buffalo Exposition, Sept. 6, 1901. He died from the effects of his wounds, on the morning of Saturday, Sept. 14, 1901.

Without thought of politics or party the people of the United States deeply mourn the tragic assassination of President McKinley. Since the fatal bullet was fired a week ago yesterday by the murderous anarchist the nation has entertained but two hopes--that the President would recover from his injuries and that anarchy would be eradicated from within the borders of this peace-loving nation. The first and foremost hope has been vain and now the nation demands the fulfillment of the other.

"GOOD BYE, ALL; IT'S GOD'S WAY"

Were the Last Audible Words That were Spoken by the Nation's Martyred President.

The Tragic End Was Peaceful and Calm.

The President was Perfectly Resigned to His Fate and Requested the Physicians to Cease the Administrations of Oxygen and Let Him Die. Boundless Rage Against the Assassin, Czolgosz.

Buffalo, Sept. 14.--President McKinley died at 2:15 a. m. He had been unconscious since 7:50 p. m. His last conscious hour on earth was spent with the wife to whom he devoted a lifetime of care. He died unattended by a minister of the gospel, but his last words were an humble submission to the will of the God in whom he believed. He was reconciled to the cruel fate to which an assassin's bullet had condemned him, and faced death in the same spirit of calmness and poise which has marked his long and honorable career. His last conscious words, reduced to writing by Dr. Mann, who stood at his bedside when they were uttered, were as follows: "Goodbye, all, goodbye. It is God's way. His will be done."

His relatives and the members of his official family were at the Milburn house except Secretary Wilson, who did not avail himself of the opportunity. Some others of his personal and political friends also took leave of him. This painful ceremony was simple. His friends came to the door of the sick-room, took a longing glance at him and turned tearfully away. He was practically unconscious during this time. But the powerful heart stimulants, including oxygen, were employed to restore him to consciousness for his final parting with his wife. He asked for her and she sat at his side and held his hand. He consoled her and bade her goodbye. She went through the heart-breaking scene with the same bravery and fortitude with which she has borne the grief of the tragedy which ended his life.

The immediate cause of the president's death is undetermined. His physicians will possibly require an autopsy to fix the exact cause. The president's remains will be taken to Washington and there will be a state funeral. Vice President Roosevelt, who now succeeds to the presidency, may take the oath of office wherever he happens to hear the news. The cabinet will, of course, resign in a body, and President Roosevelt will have an opportunity of forming a new cabinet if he so desires.

The rage of the people of Buffalo against the president's assassin, when they learned that he was dying, was boundless. Thousands surrounded the jail, and the entire police force of the city and two regiments of militia were utilized to insure his protection. The announcement of the death to members of the cabinet was by Webb Hayes, who said, "It is all over." Mrs. McKinley last saw her husband between 11 and 12. At that time she sat by the bedside holding his hand. The members of the cabinet were admitted to the sick-room singly at that time. The actual death probably occurred about 2 o'clock, it being understood that Dr. Rixey delayed the announcement momentarily to assure himself.

The announcement of the news to those waiting below was postponed until the members of the family had withdrawn. Through Secretary Cortelyou the waiting newspaper men received the notification. In a trice there was the keenest excitement on the broad avenue, but there was no semblance of disorder. When the news was imparted to those down stairs a great sigh of anguish went up from the strong men there assembled. The members of the cabinet, senators and close friends remained but a few minutes. Then, with mournful tread and bowed heads they came out into the darkness and went away. There was not one among them with dry eyes, and some moaned in agony of grief.

The military guard was augmented immediately upon the announcement. The waiting crowds melted away rapidly, giving expression in unmistakable terms to the great sorrow they felt. Within a brief space of time the newspaper men, the policemen, the sentries of the guard and those whose duties kept them abroad were the only persons in evidence within the immediate vicinity.

NIGHT OF SUSPENSE.
Scenes at the Milburn Home Before the End Came.
Buffalo, Sept. 14.--The president at midnight is slowly dying. Secretary Cortelyou sent this announcement from the house. At the same time Dr. Mynter, who had just come from the sick room, said there was hardly any pulse left and the body was getting cold, although the president's vitality was strong. But he might die at any moment. The extremities are now cold with the approach of death.

The last sad offices about the bedside have been said, and the president has again lapsed into unconsciousness after a brief period of consciousness. During his conscious moments Mrs. McKinley was brought into the chamber and there was an affecting farewell. Members of the cabinet, one by one, saw the president momentarily and there was a hushed exchange. Then the president softly chanted a hymn. Just before he lapsed into unconsciousness he begged the doctors to let him die. At 9:40 every one within the house, and in the great crowd outside is awaiting the announcement of the end.

The president in his last period of consciousness, which ended about 7:40, chanted the words of the hymn "Nearer My God to Thee," and his last audible conscious words as taken down by Dr. Mann at the bedside were: "Good-bye, all; goodbye. It is God's way. His will be done."

Then his mind began to wander and soon he completely lost consciousness. His life was prolonged for hours by the administration of oxygen, and the president finally expressed a desire to be allowed to die. About 8:30 the administration of oxygen ceased and the pulse grew fainter and fainter. He was sinking gradually, like a child, into the eternal slumber. By 10 o'clock the pulse could no longer be felt in his extremities, and they grew cold. With strained and tear-stained faces members of the cabinet were grouped in anxious waiting. They knew the end was near and that the time had come when they must see him for the last time on earth. One by one they ascended the stairway--Secretary Root, Secretary Hitchcock and Attorney General Knox. Secretary Wilson also was there, but he held back, not wishing to see the president in his last agony. There was only a momentary stay of the cabinet officers at the threshold of the death chamber. Then they withdrew, the tears streaming down their faces and the words of intense grief choking in their throats.

After they left the sick room the physicians rallied him to consciousness and the president asked almost immediately that his wife be brought to him. The doctors fell back into the shadows of the room as Mrs. McKinley came through the doorway. The strong face of the dying man lighted up with a faint smile as their hands were clasped. She sat beside him and held his hand. Despite her physical weakness she bore up bravely under the ordeal.

Secretary of the Navy Long arrived at the Milburn house at 12:05 o'clock. This was his first visit to the city, and he had the extreme satisfaction of seeing the president alive, even though he was not conscious of his visitor's presence. Secretary Long was visibly affected.

Shortly after midnight the president's breathing was barely perceptible. His pulse had practically ceased.

and the extremities were cold. It was recognized that nothing remained but the last struggle, and some of the friends of the family who had remained through the day began to leave the house, not caring to be present at the final scene.

Such an intense state of anxiety existed among the watchers that rumors gained frequent circulation that death had already actually occurred. The arrival of the coroner gave rise to one such rumor, and a flood of groundless dispatches were sent saying that the end had come. These were speedily set at rest by an official statement from within the house that the reports of death were groundless, and that the president still lived.

Coroner Wilson said that he had been ordered by the district attorney of the county to go to the Milburn residence as soon as possible after the announcement of death. He had seen a reputable local paper issued with the announcement that the president died at 11:08 p. m., and had hurried up so there would be no delay in removing the body. He was very much chagrined when Dr. Mann met him at the door and told him that his services were not required and that he would be notified when he was wanted. Dr. Mann said that the president was still alive, and that Dr. Janeway was examining the heart action. There was really no hope, but they did not desire gruesome anticipation.

Demonstrative Crowds.
The city went into a state of ferment when the news of the sudden collapse of the president was announced. It seemed but an instant when crowds formed at every corner, swarmed towards the newspaper bulletins, and when they found that the rumor was confirmed, somebody shouted, "Let's find the assassin."

With an impulse the crowd started for the station house where Czolgosz is confined. Telephones were utilized, and the police notified, and when the crowd arrived they found the police out in force. Around the station house it was estimated that at least 5,000 people were gathered. They were not particularly ugly, and when the police proceeded to drive them back there was little resistance.

Roosevelt Notified.
Vice President Roosevelt had been notified early in the day of the critical state of affairs. There was no longer a doubt that in the approaching death of the president a complete change in the executive administration of the government would ensue. When Mr. Roosevelt would take the oath of office was wholly a matter of conjecture. President Arthur took the oath at 3 a. m. after the death of Garfield, and in that case Justice Brady, of New York, administered the oath. There is no requirement that the oath shall be administered by a justice of the United States supreme court, although that procedure is adopted when circumstances permit.

Roosevelt Located.
Albany, N. Y. Sept. 14.--Vice President Roosevelt reached the camp of the Tahaw Club, in the Adirondacks, 35 miles north of North Creek, at 2 p. m. He was found on the top of Mount Marcy, where he had gone on a hunting expedition, by guides who had been sent out early in the day to deliver to him the telegram from Buffalo announcing a change for the worse in the president's condition at 9:45 p. m. Superintendent Hammond of the Delaware and Hudson, who has been at North Creek all day with a special train to bring Vice President Roosevelt to Albany, telegraphed the train dispatcher's office in this city that Mr. Roosevelt could not possibly reach North Creek before 5 or 6 a. m. Saturday.

The President began sinking steadily at about 5 o'clock, and although the physicians administered stimulants frequently he rallied only very slightly, and before 6 o'clock it was evident that all hope was vain, and that the work of death was only a question of minutes.

COLOMBIAN ON ECUADOR

Diplomat Says Relations Are Most Cordial.

SEES NO SERIOUS TROUBLE AHEAD

Secretary of Colombian Legation at Washington Declares That War Is Not Being Provoked by Nationalists. Says Venezuela, Ecuador and Nicaragua Are Simply Helping the Filibusters.

Ecuador as a nation is not prosecuting war against the United States of Colombia. Diplomatic relations of the most cordial character are still maintained between the two governments. Expeditions recently leaving Ecuador to operate for the overthrow of Colombia are composed entirely of filibustering parties. The authorities of Ecuador are presumably making all honest efforts to suppress these expeditions.

Dr. Thomas Herran, secretary of the Colombian legation at Washington and charge d'affaires in the absence of Minister Silva, recently explained the South American situation to a New York World correspondent. He said:

"Senior Alfaro, who relinquished the presidency of Ecuador last Sunday (Sept. 11), being succeeded by Senior Plaza, has always been hostile to Colombia. He has permitted filibustering expeditions to be fitted out and to proceed against Colombia, although declaring that his administration was striving to prevent these attacks.

"President Plaza upon assuming office promised to suppress filibustering. The expeditions now proceeding against Colombia do not have the open support of the Ecuadorian government. They were doubtless formed at the instigation of Alfaro. These expeditions are said to be strong and to be assisted by warships, but in no sense do they represent the making of war by Ecuador upon Colombia. The Colombian minister is still at Quito and advises that the government of Ecuador promises to do all possible toward preventing the commission of attacks by its own citizens.

"The attitude of Nicaragua is curious. The population and resources of that country are insignificant. An attack from that source is not to be taken seriously. President Zelaya is an advanced radical. He has always encouraged the hobnobbing of international congresses at Nicaragua, where empires are formed against other governments. Many plans for revolutions have originated in Nicaragua. One against Mexico was formed there. Arms and ammunition can be brought there for the ostensible use of the Nicaraguan government and then turned over to filibustering parties. In this way much trouble is caused, although no serious injury can result.

"The great body of Venezuelans do not desire war with Colombia. President Castro is an illiterate and ambitious man. Five years ago he was living in Colombia just across the frontier from Venezuela. He kept a small hotel at Salazar. Many refugees from Venezuela stopped at his hotel, and in this way he became identified with the revolutionary movement against Andrade.

"At that time Castro and Uribe made compacts to overthrow their respective governments. Castro became a minor leader in the movement against Andrade, which was successful. The real leaders could not agree among themselves as to who should be made president and Castro was chosen as a compromise. In the meantime Uribe had failed to overthrow his government. He was compelled to flee from the country. He appealed to Castro to carry out his promise of assistance made when both were forming their original conspiracy. Castro is now trying to make good his promise.

"The scheme of Castro and Uribe to re-establish the greater republic, embracing Venezuela, Ecuador and Colombia, cannot be successful. The two leaders would quarrel for supremacy if the plan could be made operative. Both would demand the presidency.

"I believe the attitude of the United States will prevent the actual declaration of war by Venezuela against Colombia. The United States is pledged to maintain the neutrality of the isthmus of Panama and to support the sovereignty of Colombia. The declaration that this will be done will, in my judgment, deter Venezuela from forcing war.

"The rebels in Colombia are now simply guerrillas. They hold no important towns and have not even the importance the Filipinos have in the island of Luzon. They wander about attacking small villages and preying upon farmers and looting Chinese. Through-out the rebel attacks by Venezuela and Ecuador the Colombian government has been quiet and patient. No serious effects are anticipated."

All Old Yale Buildings Torn Down.
The transformation of the old Yale campus is complete, says the New Haven Evening Register. The last of the college buildings marked for destruction this summer has been razed. The old Treasury building, North college and Lyceum hall have been leveled during the summer vacation, which is now drawing to a close, and nothing now remains to mark their site except newly seeded plots, which have been graded and which within a few months will leave no trace of the buildings which have covered them for a century.

Always the Soldier.
The president showed that splendid coolness when shot, says the Indianapolis Journal, that made him the good soldier he was.

GRAND ARMY.

Encampment Closed Amid Gloom.

O'Acers Elected.

Cleveland, Sept. 14.—The convention of the thirty-fifth annual encampment of the Grand Army came to a close amid the silence and gloom of the impending death of the president. It was consequently decided to proceed with the election of officers and to refer all other important business of the session to the incoming council of administration. General Daniel E. Sickles of New York withdrew his name as a candidate for commander-in-chief before the nominations were made. Comrade Ayres of Delaware moved the nomination of General Thomas J. Stewart of Pennsylvania. General Gobin seconding. Governor Van Sant of Minnesota placed Judge Eli Torrance in nomination. The Torrance vote stood 475 to Stewart's 236, when General Wagner moved that the vote be made unanimous of Torrance. The motion was carried. Other officers elected were: Senior vice commander, John McElroy, Washington, D. C.; junior vice commander, James O'Donnell, Illinois; surgeon general, Dr. W. R. Thrall, Cincinnati; chaplain-in-chief, Rev. L. M. Boyle, Pennsylvania.

SETTLEMENT

Of the Big Steel Strike Looked For.

Shaffer's Movements.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 14.—The absence of President Shaffer from Amalgamated headquarters was noted, and when the day passed and he did not appear the report that he was in New York was received from several good sources. The officials of the organization declared to discuss the strike in any form and said that they did not know where Mr. Shaffer was. The indications were that a settlement of the strike was looked for by the Amalgamated men. This belief was strengthened by the current issue of the Amalgamated Journal, which told of President Shaffer's renewed effort for new negotiations. His present trip to New York is believed to be the consummation of these efforts. Until the result is known no developments are expected in the situation.

Joliet Strike Ordered Off.

Joliet, Ill., Sept. 14.—Although not officially sanctioned by the joint conference of lodges, the steel strike in Joliet is at an end. An order from President Shaffer is on the way declaring the strike here off. The men will hold one more joint meeting to ratify the action of Shaffer. The mills started in the afternoon and many of the strikers have already gone to work. Others will go on with additional turns and the several departments will be put in operation as speedily as possible.

Ladies of the Grand Army.

Cleveland, Sept. 14.—The Ladies of the Grand Army, at the session of their fifteenth annual convention, elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Emma Wall, Lawrence, Kan.; secretary-vice president, Ella Wagner, San Francisco; junior vice president, Jennie Barnell, Kentucky; treasurer, Annie Michener, German town, Pa.; chaplain, Lavinia Brainard, New York; council of administration, Rachel Doran, Pittsburgh; Mary T. Hagan, Chicago; Olive Allison, Richmond, Ind.

Anarchists to Be Held.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"Every one of the anarchist prisoners will be held. I do not anticipate any violent demonstration in Chicago, but I am prepared to meet any move by the populace," declared Chief of Police O'Neill. Judge Chetlain will fix the bonds of the prisoners at a high figure on account of the death of President McKinley, and because of new information in the hands of the police.

Removal of Czolgosz.

Buffalo, Sept. 14.—Superintendent of Police Hall said with reference to the rumors of the removal of Czolgosz: "There is only one person in whose custody the prisoner could be removed, and that is the sheriff of Erie county. He has not been turned over to him and it will be some time before Czolgosz leaves his custody. The arrangements were made to provide for any emergency."

Bryan Depressed.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Of the sorrowful tidings Colonel William J. Bryan said: "I have already spoken of the horror of which I regard the assassin's crime. I have already spoken of the high personal esteem in which I hold Mr. McKinley. In this moment of sorrow I can add nothing to either."

Georgia farmers and planters are appealing to negroes to help them with their turpentine getting. Builders of new cotton mills are greatly concerned as to where they will get hands to run their mills.

"Never Knew Pain Killer to Fail before, what, can the matter be? Where is the bottle? There, I thought so; it is not Perry Davis' Pain Killer at all; but something the druggist must have made himself and I did not notice it; I have used Pain Killer for years for diarrhoea, cramps and stomach aches and it never failed."

HONOR FOR COLORED HERO

Statue of J. B. Parker, Who Struck Down McKimley's Assailant.

Travelers returning from Buffalo to Pittsburgh the other night tell of a movement begun there to erect a statue to the colored man who sprang upon the president's assailant, says the Philadelphia Press. It is said that several thousand dollars was raised in a few minutes at the exposition grounds, a number of big checks being given. The plan of those in charge in Buffalo, it is said, is to erect a heroic statue of the colored man in the act of striking down Leon Czolgosz. It is expected to raise $50,000 for this purpose.

J. B. Parker, the negro waiter who prevented the anarchist from firing a third shot into President McKinley's body, is said by his associates in New York to be as fearless as he is strong and as modest as he is fearless. Parker is popular, but is feared because of his tremendous strength. The struggle held, the one he tried on the anarchist with such success, is known to few men outside professional wrestlers, but it is known to Parker, who learned it when he lived in Georgia. Born a slave, freedom came to Parker when he was only a boy, but he continued to live with and work for the whites. By diligence and a determination to learn he succeeded in obtaining an education.

It was during the Charleston earthquake that Parker's struggle held came in good stead. When the robbery of the dead and the looting of wrecked houses began, he went from Atlanta and offered his services as a policeman in Charleston. The negroes were giving the most trouble, and Parker, with his tremendous size and strength, wrenched the neck of more than one thief. He was more feared than any other man who helped to guard the stricken city.

A story illustrating Parker's influence among other negroes was told by his associates the other day. During the race riots in New York in the summer of 1899 it was dangerous for a negro to venture out on the west side of the city between Twenty-third and Forty-second streets. The negroes were panic stricken and many were ready to commit violence. Parker advised the negroes to keep cool and to stay off the street and, above all things, to keep out of rows. His advice is said to have been followed by many men.

NEW STOCKING DEVICE.

Valuable Improvement For Knitting Machines by Kenosha Inventor.

Howard E. Harbaugh, until recently connected with a hosiery company near Kenosha, Wis., has been granted a patent upon an attachment for knitting machines that is a great improvement over anything of the kind in use heretofore, says the Chicago Record-Herald.

The attachment, which is designed to be used on any knitting machine using the vertical stroke needles, is intended to join the upper or ribbed portion of a stocking to the lower portion. These two parts, being made with different stitches, are knitted upon separate machines, and considerable trouble has been experienced in finding a method of joining them together smoothly. Up to a short time ago all the mills in the country joined them by sewing the parts together, but by Mr. Harbaugh's invention it is possible to knit them together in such a fashion that it is impossible to tell that they were not knit upon the same machine.

Mr. Harbaugh has been working upon this scheme for several years and has already been granted four patents upon different styles of the attachment, but he claims this last one far exceeds in efficiency any that has gone before. It can be attached to any knitting machine, with slight alterations, and will undoubtedly find ready recognition among all manufacturers.

A NOVEL LIGHTSHIP.

It Is Operated Automatically and Does Not Need a Crew.

The new lightship at Otter Rock, West Scotland, has some novel features, says a cable dispatch from London to the New York Sun. It is built of steel of extra strength and the hull is divided into three watertight compartments of which the middle one contains two large steel gas holders. A lantern is placed on a cylindrical mast at a height of twenty-five feet.

There is a large bell, which has not only an ordinary tongue, but is made to strike as the vessel rolls. There is also a special clapper which is operated by the passage of gas from the holder to the burner. No crew is needed. The supply of gas is sufficient to operate the light and the bell for several months without any attention.

ON FIRE.

An exploding lamp; the clothing in a blaze; a paragraph in the paper telling of horrible suffering from burns. Tragedy in this form moves a man to tears.

But for women who are daily being consumed by the smoldering fire of disease there is little sympathy. Inflammation, with its fierce burning, ulceration, eating into the tissues; the nervous system almost shattered by suffering, these are only part of the daily agonies borne by many a woman.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription puts out the fire of inflammation, heals ulceration, and cures female weakness. It tranquilizes the nerves, restores the appetite and gives refreshing sleep. "Favorite Prescription" is the most reliable put-up medicine offered as a cure for diseases peculiar to women. It always helps. It almost always cures.

"When I first commenced using Dr. Pierce's medicine," writes Mrs. George A. Strong, of Canton, Saratoga Co., N. Y., "I was suffering from female weakness, a disagreeable draining-down pains, weak and tired feeling all the time. I dragged around in that way for two years, and I began taking your medicine. After taking first bottle I began to feel better. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' the rest of the 'Pleasant Pellets,' also used one bottle of Dr. Scott's Emulsion. Now I feel like a new person. I can't thank you enough for your kind advice and the good your medicine has done me."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper bound, is sent free on receipt of 21 cent stamp to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by Wm. M. will send cold chills up and down the spinal column of the Republicans who are basing their hopes upon Demo-no quarrel among themselves now.

There are too many infamous movements to antagonize in the Republican party for them to waste their energy in senseless bickerings. Mr. Bryan knows this and is acting accordingly.The Jamestown (N. Y.) Journal has been wrestling with the name of the President's assailant and has this to say: "Few persons attempt to pronounce the name of Czolgosz, who shot the President. It cannot be spelled phonetically by the English alphabet, it being a Russian name. Written according to its sound, the name of Czolgosz, or its nearest equivalent is "Scholigosh," or more broadly speaking "Scholigosh." "Cz" is represented in the Russian alphabet by a character which is pronounced "sch," the same as though one were suppressing a sneeze—"tch." The next two letters, "ol," are pronounced in combination as though written "oil," and the remaining letters of the name "gosz," have the sound of "gosh." Scholigosh will probably be the accepted pronunciation.

"The Heart of Chicago."

The "Heart of Chicago," Lincoln J.
Carter's spectacular comedy drama will be produced for the second time in this city, Saturday afternoon and evening. It is said to contain a story of extraordinary power well told and relieved by many bright moments of clever comedy. The interpreting company includes some very clever people who ought to do full justice to the thrilling story. All the scenes and incidents are located in the great western metropolis, and the story runs through the space of time between the great fire and the World's Fair. We are promised an abundance of handsome scenery, wonderful mechanical effects and mysterious electrical devices. Chief among these many scenic features are the vivid reproduction of a section of the great fire, and the wonderful advancing locomotive, which is seen to approach rapidly from apparently miles away and brings up at the footlights full sized and perfect. This effect is covered by 25

Finding of Explorer Peary.Special by wire to Times-Democrat.
Halifax, N. S., Sept. 13.—The steamer Etick which sailed from Sydney on July 14, last, for the north to search for explorer Peary, and his wife, returned to Sydney this morning.
Peary succeeded in penetrating as far as 82.50 north. The Etick found the Windward side at Etah. Peary was left at Cape Sabain. The only mishap the Etick met with was the loss of her anchor at Alexandria sound. The re-lief expedition brought back some 250 walrus heads and a number of Kayaks and other curiosities. All of the members of the expedition are well.
Peary reached the farthest point north ever attained in the western hemisphere—82 degrees 50 minutes.
He will try for north pole again next spring.
Peary failed to reach the north pole but his party is all well and their work is of vast scientific importance.

Victim the Son of Black-year old son of a blacksmith of that name who runs a shop on east Second street, was seriously and permanently injured on the C. & E. road late yesterday afternoon. He is now a victim in the city hospital where an operation was performed at an early hour last evening. Both of the boy's feet were crushed by the wheels of the train and his head was so badly injured that a fatal termination may be the result.The Pickering boy, together with two other lads named Painter and Bowers, had started to walk out the C. & E. tracks to the Detroit Southern crossing and while they were on their way, west bound freight train No. 31 pulled into the yards and the Pickering boy told his companions he would Jump the Freightand ride back to St. Johns avenue. He attempted to catch the handles of a steel ladder on a box car as it passed him but missed his hold and fell under the car. The wheels caught both of his feet and crushed them so badly that the amputation of a portion of both was found necessary after he was removed to the hospital. The tears of his right foot and the heel of his left foot were frightfully man-

THE STAGE

Tonight.....The Heart of Chicago Tuesday.....An American Tramp
Thursday.....East Lynne Saturday matinee and night.....
.....The Land o' Cotton

"Uncle Tom's Cabin drew the usual crowds Wednesday. The matinee was largely attended and by the time the curtain went up in the evening every seat was occupied and hundreds were standing.

The Martin production of the old drama was in every way worthy of the large patronage it received, and the huge audience seemed to enjoy every moment of it.

Crowded houses have been the rule at the opera house so far this season, and from the list of attractions offered by the management for next week a continuance of the large patronage the theatre is receiving seems assured.

Lincoln J. Carter's production, "The Heart of Chicago," with its spectacular effects, exciting incidents, heart-aches and occasional dashes of merriment, is on this afternoon at the Parrot.

The scenes which plays most upon the emotions is, of course, that in which Miss Afton flags the train just in front of the open draw bridge in time to save her engineer lover and the passengers from death. The realism of the approaching train is attested by the nervous dread that is visible in the faces of the audience on every hand as the headlight, a moment ago a dot of light in perspective, rapidly draws nearer, accompanied by a rumble, increasing to a roar. Then the locomotive is revealed and before it lies the prostrate form of the heroine. Another instant her lover and she are locked in each other's embrace. The toils which gradually fasten around the villain, John Ames, are tightened logically and keep up the interest. The play will be repeated tonight.

A number of worthy plays, half-forgotten in a decade given over to the dramatized novel, have come to light again in the present rage for revivals.

Of these none is more worthy to be heard again than "East Lynne," which for 25 years proved a pleasing retouch for some of the greatest players either England or America has produced.

The first of the emotional dramas; the forerunner of a great school whose influence has never ceased to be felt.
It combined truth with simplicity and appealed to the tenderest of human instincts with resorting to sham senti-mentalism. With J. F. Crosby, Jr., and Inez Forman as the stars, a sumptuous revival given the play will be seen at the Faurot, Thursday evening September 19th.

Special scenery, hinging the old atmosphere up into the new, has been granted and all suitable accessories provided. The company, supporting the stars, has been carefully selected and includes, among others, Mr. Chas.
Tennis, as Sir Francis Levison and Miss Alice Brooklyne, as Barbara.

Miss Forman, of course, appears as Lady Isabel and Mr. Crosby as Archibald Crilise. In these they are said to find congenial roles and with the minor parts in capable hands, a smooth interpretation of the famous play may be guaranteed.

In "An American Tramp," E. E.
Kiddler, the well known playwright who wrote "A Poor Relation" for Sol Smith Russell, solves a problem that has vexed the rural communities for years. In it Mr. Kiddler attempts to show that with kindness, a just appreciation of man, even in rags, and the consequent respecting of his rights will impell even the most confirmed hobo to think he is on earth for a purpose. In this play the author promises a new and rather novel motive, that of a rascally husband insuring the life of his wife, then stupefying her with drugs, hiding her in an attic of a deserted (and supposed to be haunted) house, substituting another body for her's and collecting the insurance thereon. Through the medium of an ordinary lamp the wronged wife is liberated and restored to rights that had been wrested from her, and the guilty punished. There is said to be a happy blending of pathos and wit in "An American Tramp" and several novel effects are promised. The cast contains the names of such well and favorably known players as Edward H. O'Connor, who plays "Happy Jack," the tramp; Miss Gertrude Barnes, the dainty little soubrette star; Miss Carrie Godfrey, the well known comic opera prima donna, late of the Castle Square Co.; Margaret Meredit, a clever character Irish-woman, and in fact every part is in the hands of competent people. The play will be strong in musical and vaudeville numbers and is framed in a magnificent scenic environment.

The "Land o' Cotton," which comes next Saturday matinee and evening, we are promised something new in the way of a play dealing with life in the sunny south. The company is a large one and is headed by that king of negro impersonators, the famous Will G. Barlow. The scenic equipment is said to be extensive and artistic, and the production as a whole most elaborate.

"The Outpost," a new play dealing with incidents of the Boer-British wars was successfully produced by J. K.
Emmet and Lottie Gilson in Washington on Monday night.

The "standing room" sign has been employed at nearly every performance of "Way Down East" at McVicker's, Chicago, where the one hundred and fiftieth performance of the play in Chicago was celebrated Monday night with souvenir programmes. It will soon end its run and give way to Joseph Hart and Carrie De Mar in Foxy Grandpa for one week.

Manager "Yank" D. Newell, whose name is familiar in all the cosmopolitan centers of this country and Mexico, is the gentleman who brings E. E. Kiddler's truly Yankee play, "An American Tramp" to the Opera House Tuesday night. Mr. Kiddler is also the author of Sol Smith Russell's great success, "A Poor Relation."

John W. Cope, who played "canby in Arizona" here last season, contemplates starting next season in a Western drama of his own authorship.

increasing practice in this community, paralleled success by the use of the Crayons. They issue to every patient

Their object in doing this is to insure

HIGH

Officials of the C.
H. & D.

Were in Lima

Spent Several Hours
at the Shops.

No Real Significance Attached to Their Visit, Says Supt. Cory.

On Board Were President Woodford, Vice-Prest. Zimmerman and H. F. Shoemaker, of the Board of Directors.

There arrived in Lima yesterday afternoon on No. 5, three of the highest officials of the C. H. & D. railroad.
On board the private car were President Woodford, Vice President Zimmerman and Chairman of the Board of Directors, H. F. Shoemaker, the latter an uncle of Assistant Superintendent Shoemaker, of this city. No. 5 left the private car in Lima, and the distinguished visitors, escorted by Superintendent Floeter and Supt. of Motive Power C. H. Cory, who accompanied the party from Dayton, paid a visit to the mechanical departments of the Lima division, visiting all of the shops and taking a general survey of the surroundings.

"There was nothing of a really significant nature in the visit of the officials," remarked Mr. Cory, "other than that of familiarizing themselves with what is being accomplished in Lima, and to satisfy themselves that there is a further necessity of spending some money," he added with his ever genial smile.

The private car was attached to No.
5 at 5 o'clock and the officials left Lima for Dayton, from which point they will take a trip of inspection over the Wellston division.

Attorney H. P. Debasen, of Cincinnati, who is just now very much interested in watching the prospects of proposed electric lines that want to parallel the C. H. & D., was on the private car with the officials of the latter road yesterday.

A Big Excursion.

The management of the Detroit Southern road is more than pleased with its excursion business says the Springfield Sun. On last Saturday it handled 1,450 people to Detroit, returning all of them Sunday, retaining with their trip. At this, hundreds who wished to go and who already had tickets could not get on the trains, and 400 tickets sold between this city and Lima were redeemed or held to be used next Saturday. When the trains left the city Saturday evening a message was sent to all operators along the line between here and Lima advising them the excursion was called off. The people remained at the stations in many cases, just to see the more fortunate passengers go through. Inquiry has been made by many as to whether tickets sold for last Saturday will be good for the coming Saturday, and on being told they would, are simply holding on to them, waiting patiently to make the trip. There never was a greater surprise sprung on any set of railroad men than was the excursion of last Saturday evening. Where 800 people at the outset were expected to go, 1,400 went, leaving fully 500 more un-accommodated. The "experiment" thus far has convinced the officials that heavy excursion business may be developed to Detroit, and next year is to see a revolution in equipment for this purpose. If present plans carry, excursion trains next summer will carry as many as six sleeping cars for the benefit of those who wish this convenience while day coaches will be in abundance for others who are contented with the more ordinary accommodations.

The Detroit Southern has five excursions arranged, all to take place within three days—Saturday, Sunday and Monday. One will be from Bainbridge to Detroit Saturday night, the second to that of last Saturday. Another will be from Springfield to Quincy, taking the Wickham & Chapman employees up for an outing. Still another will be run from Greenfield to Jackson and return on account of Buffalo Bill's show. On Sunday there will be an excursion from Jackson to Toledo and the series will end when on Monday morning at 2 o'clock, a special train will start from Wellston to Greenfield.

Quite a laughable story is told by one of the Detroit Southern officials incident upon the trip to Detroit last Saturday. One old farmer came back Sunday, his countenance radiant with joy which shown out regardless of a coating of two days of dusty travel.

"Say," he said as he alighted from the train. "I never had a better time in my life than I did during the 14 hours I was in Detroit. But let me tell you: I seen something up there that I never seen before in all my life, and that was a gasoline stove rigged onto a wagon which sketched over the streets just like blazes." The former had his first glimpse of an automobile.

At Still Tide.
The flow of travel to Cleveland reached the stand still point yesterday when only a few tickets were disposed of and the incoming trains began to bring to their homes the early visitors. Today and tomorrow there will be a rush of passenger business again over all railroads out of Cleveland, as the encampment is drawing to a close and another big reunion of the Old Vets will have passed into history.

The Break Had to Come.
There has been something wrong on the Clover Leaf for the past few weeks, as not a single mention has been made of an official resignation.
The break came yesterday, however, as President Norton announced in one of his "every-ones-in-a-while" circulars that B. R. Stephens has resigned as general superintendent and C. F.
Franklin has again been restored to that uneasy office. The circular does not say in what pigeon hole they have placed Mr. Stephens. Supt. Franklin's headquarters will be in Toledo.

Has a Shoulder Broken.
Engineer James Cranston fell from the cab window of a Lake Erie and Western engine on the Fort Wayne division last Tuesday and sustained a fracture of one of the shoulder bones. He was shifting cars at Gasian and fell with leaning out of the window looking for signals from the train-men. He is now at his home on Mar-ton street, where he is likely to be confined for several days.—Fort Wayne Sentinel.

An Awful Fall.

C. M. Overly, superintendent of construction on the C. H. & D., witnessed a frightful accident at Toledo day before yesterday. Wm. Mull, an iron worker was at the top of the big steel elevator now under way, when he lost his footing and fell to the bottom. The unfortunate man struck the steel landing and was terribly injured, but when Mr. Overly left Toledo was still alive, although there was no chance of his recovery.

ADD C. H. & D.

A telegram from Assistant Superintendent Shoemaker this morning announced that he would return to Lima this evening. His vacation took him to a point in northern Michigan after a pleasant stay at the Snows.

General Notes.

Another local freight is to be added to the Clover Leaf on the west end, making two trains in service between Delphos and Van Buren, Ind., instead of the turn-around local between Delphos and Bluffton, Ind.

Indianapolis Journal. "The Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago will place on the New York stock exchange additional guaranteed special stock to the amount of $1,224,200.
The money will be expended in improvements to the property, second track, etc."

Walt McConnell has resigned his position with the Pennsylvania freight office at Fort Wayne and accepted a position with the weighing and inspection bureau. Mr. McConnell has been assigned to the Lake Shore and Lake Erie & Western roads.

Garwood's New Position.

Donna A. Garwood, formerly purchasing agent for the Cincinnati Northern, and more recently connected with the Lima Northern in the same capacity, is now manager of the advertising department of the Pettibone Bros. Manufacturing Co. The concern is one of the largest uniform and badge manufacturers in the country. Mr. Garwood is qualified for this position, as is evidenced by some of his work that has appeared in The Blade. He writes an excellent story and is a good illustrator.

Tiffin & Southwestern.

A dispatch from Tiffin says.—Hon.
M. A. Smalley, of Toledo, and other officials of the Tiffin & Southwestern railway company, were in the city, yesterday and started over the proposed line from Tiffin to Kenton, with L. H. Burgoon, with whom the company is negotiating for the construction of the road.

Mr. Burgoon built the line between Delphos and Akron, now owned by the Lake Erie & Western Railroad company. He has recently completed fifty miles of road in southwestern Missouri. The Tiffin & Southwestern route from Tiffin to Kenton, via the McCutchenville road, measures 43 miles. The promoters have steadily proceeded in the business connected with the project, since its inception and there is every evidence that the efforts will not end until the line is completed and in operation.

"WHATEVER YOU GET FROM THE UNION IS RIGHT."

states that the Lake Shore people are looking for excellent results through its acquiring control of the Lake Erie and Western, says the Indianapolis Journal. Since reorganized by the Briar syndicate the company has not borrowed money; every dollar put into improvement of the property has come from the earnings, and the Lake Shore people are pursuing the same methods with the most at present.

The Lake Shore has controlled the property eighteen months and has expended money liberally in improving the roadbed, and will soon equip it with rolling stock second to no road in the country. Within another eight-teen months it will run its trains over as solid and smooth a track as any in this territory. Over 100 miles of heavy steel rails have been laid this season, and the work of substituting heavy steel for light rail is still progressing and will terminate only, says one of the officials, when the main lines are all laid with heavy steel.
Bridges have been so improved that the heaviest locomotive can be run over them and then the financial and physical condition will be such as to make it one of the most valuable properties, as a money earner, in this territory. The system extends from Sandusky, Ohio, to Peoria, Ill., 420 miles, with the Minster branch, ten miles; Indianapolis to Michigan City, 162 miles; Fort Wayne to Connors-ville, with a branch to Rushville, 133 miles—a total of 884 miles.

Lake Huron's Big Storm.

Round house foreman Ira Beebe is back at his post of duty again after a delightful outing with his family at Mackinac. The voyage over was delightful, but returning was one of the worst trips that uncertain Lake Huron could offer. Of the 800 passengers, not more than 100 were able to battle successfully with sea sickness, and Mr. Beebe was one of the fortunate ones. Both of his sons, and his wife and daughter succumbed to the malady and Mrs. Beebe still thinks that everything in the house ought to be nailed down. For several hours the big Alpena was lost in the fog and soundings for depths were frequently taken while the big boat drifted almost at will. The big waves wrenched all those who sought the fresh air of the deck and the dense fog was aggravated by burning timbers on the shore.
At Harbor landing the life saving crew rescued a number of men from tugsloops and barges, and the boats, one a big side wheeler, were stranded.
Many on board the Alpena were so sick that they cared little what the fate of the boat might be. Even the maids on board were in a state of complete collapse, and the cabins and saloons, to use Mr. Beebe's expression, resembled a slaughter house. The crew acknowledged that Lake Huron never behaved worse.

Mr. Floeter's Rise.

The C. H. & D. Magazine, a bright and sparkling monthly publication, and decidedly neat typographically, is out for September, and among its usually interesting sketches and comments is an elegant half-tone of Supt.
Floeter, accompanied by the following biography which accounts for gradual rise into railroad official prominence:

"Mr. S. B. Floeter, the well known and popular superintendent of the Dayton & Michigan division of the C.
H. & D. was born in Chatham, Ont., learned telegraphy in the Montreal telegraph company's office there in 1871. From 1871 to 1875, telegraph operator and ticket clerk in the Great Western Railway's Office, 75, ticket clerk for Central Pacific railway, at San Francisco, Cal.; December, 75, to October, '81, with Canadian Southern railway as agent and train dispatcher; October, '81, to March, '83, with Detroit, Mackinaw & Marquette and Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic, chief train dispatcher and trainmaster, headquarters Marquette, Mich. From
'88 to '90, superintendent telegraph of the California Southern and the Atlantic and Pacific railways between Albuquerque, N. M., and Los Angeles, with headquarters at the latter place.
August, '91, to June, '92, train dispatcher and train master Toledo, St.
Louis & Kansas City, railway, located at Frankfort, Ind. January, '92, to November, '92, trainmaster Wellston division C. H. & D. railway. November, '93 to '95, superintendent of the same division. March, '96, to date, superintendent of the D. & M. division of the C. H. & D. at Lima O.

Mr. Floeter is recognized in Lima as a thorough railroad man, and as such he enjoys the respect of the men who are governed by his advice, as well as by the citizens in general, who admire him for his excellent traits of character.

Crews All Busy.

Superintendent of Construction C.
M. Overly has everyone of his crews busy, and there is plenty of work ahead. At Toledo one crew is at work erecting a protecting wall and driveway from Ottawa street to the main freight depot, a distance of about 300 feet. There is lots of filling to be done on the job.

Another gang of men are putting the finishing touches on the 112 foot single span bridge which is to be put in place when completed over the Jackson cut between Milton and Custer.

Work on the abutments for the Haskins bridge and several smaller ones on the Findlay branch is keeping a number of men daily employed, and a gang is engaged in moving the depot at Custer from the west to the east side of the track.

The day of days at the Pan-American Exposition will be Saturday, Sept.
14th, to be observed as Railroad Day.
It will be a good time to take in the Exposition. A good route to take to Buffalo is the Pennsylvania, over which low fares are in effect. See the nearest Ticket Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines about the cost and comfort of the trip. F. M. Eakin, Ticket Agent.

From and after September 1st, all gas bills will be payable at the office of the company, 112 west Market street.
Collectors will not be sent out in the future. e-o-d

Majestic Malleable Iron . . . and Steel Range

bakes so quickly and so perfectly. When you have examined this modern cooking wonder you can readily see from its construction why this is true.

MAJESTIC RANGES are entirely different from all other cooking apparatus. Will not clog with ashes and clinkers, allow smoke and soot to escape into the kitchen, crack or break, or subject you to the expense and annoyance of every other cooking apparatus.

Made of MALLEABLE IRON and best open hearth cold-rolled steel, 10 to 50 per cent. heavier throughout than any other range. Flues lined with pure asbestos, and the entire range riveted with the best Norway iron rivets. Air-tight and dust-tight. This explains why a Great Majestic Range will do its work in half the time, and consequently with half the fuel.

After investigating we find that the claims made for MAJESTIC RANGES are true to the letter, and have selected them for our range department, and give our personal guarantee that the Great Majestic Ranges are the most complete, durable, dependable and economical range made, and that's why, at great expense, we're having this cooking exhibition. We want all our citizens to see for themselves the proof of the claims made for Majestic Ranges.

A VALUABLE PRESENT.

We are going to give, absolutely free, to every purchaser of a Majestic Range during the sale only, a complete set of the celebrated Majestic Cooking Ware made of copper, steel and enamel, worth $7.50—cheap at that and the best at any price. #### CAPITAL CITY Stricken by the Dreadful Tidings. Changes Discussed.

Washington, Sept. 14.—News of the expected death of President McKinley came as a crushing blow to the nation's capital. Nowhere, perhaps, had the citizens been so full of confidence in the ultimate recovery of their beloved president, and the buoyant bulletins of the past week from the sick bed had lulled them into a false sense of security which made the shock terrible when the news that the Buffalo tragedy would have a fatal ending came to them. The bulletin boards were surrounded by crowds waiting in suppressed excitement for the latest word from the Milburn home, and numerous newspaper extras were eagerly snapped up. Little work was done in the great executive departments, as at the slightest excuse the clerks dropped their pens and turned to talk in small, awestricken groups of the chances that their chief magistrate had against death in the gallant struggle he was making in the far-away city on the lake.

The three cabinet officers in the capital were pictures of distress. Two days ago Secretary Hay had left his chief apparently on the road to recovery, and Postmaster General Smith, who had left Buffalo even later, said that when he came from the Milburn home the president was, according to his best information, surely on the mend. Secretary Hay divided his time between the state department and his home waiting for the end in patient resignation, prepared for his sorrowful duty of conveying to the nations of the world in official from the news of the demise of the third American president through the agency of an assassin's bullet within the short space of one human life.

At his home at Woodley Secretary Gage mournfully awaited the close of his chief's life. During the day he had been at the treasury department, and had kept touch with financial affairs, in order that the president's end might not cause any commercial disturbance that forestall on the part of his department could avert.

The probability of an extra session of congress and of early changes in the cabinet is being discussed, but the consensus of opinion is that no cabinet changes or important departures in public policy were at all likely for some time to come, and that congress would not be assembled until its regular session in December. All the cabinet, the chief diplomatic officials and the heads of important bureaus, according to custom, will tender their resignations to relieve the president of embarrassment, but it is believed Mr. Roosevelt would follow the precedent set by President Arthur after Garfield's demise, and request them to continue in office. Some of the cabinet members are not in good health and would sincerely welcome a relief from their offices, but all would waive their personal desires and continue until such time as they could be relieved easily, if indeed they request relief at all.

When the blow fell and official announcement came that President McKinley had passed away at 2:15 o'clock the crowds which had been on the streets restlessly and sorrowfully awaiting news of the end had retired for the night.

As soon as possible the state department issued a proclamation announcing the president's demise to the United States and to the world at large, and direct the closing of the executive departments and navy yards and army posts as a mark of mourning. But this proclamation required the signature of President Roosevelt and it must be countersigned also by Secretary Hay, formalities which may consume some time, owing to the separation by distance of these officials, unless it be arranged by telegraph, so that the proclamation may be delayed a day.

It is likely that President Roosevelt, as his first official act, will issue a proclamation announcing the death of the late president. He will likely designate the day of burial, and appoint it to be observed throughout the United States as a day of mourning. He will doubtless follow the example of his predecessors in similar cases and recommend that in the day of burial all people assemble "in their respective places of divine worship, there to render alike their tribute of sorrowful submission to the will of Almighty God and of reverence and love for the memory and character of our late chief magistrate."

THE PRESIDENT IS DEAD.

The members of the cabinet and the relatives and friends of the dying President who were in the Milburn house, and those who were in the city and could be summoned at once were sent for between 5 and 6 o'clock and the final leave taking of the dying President was the last sad scene before the silence of death fell over the sorrow-stricken assemblage.

At one time the President rallied slightly and called for Mrs. McKinley. She was quickly summoned, after being told that all hope had been abandoned, and the President bade her an affectionate farewell. He then lapsed into unconsciousness and sank steadily until the end came.

SENATOR DEPEW OVERCOME WITH GRIEF.

At 9:32 o'clock the newspaper men in the vicinity of the Milburn home discovered that the flag on the residence of Mr. Huntley, where the President's sister was stopping, was at half mast, and they at once came to the conclusion that the President was dead, and that the information was being suppressed to await the arrival of Roosevelt. At 9:45 o'clock, however, Chauncey Depew left the Milburn house sobbing aloud, and it was learned from him that the end had not come, but that the dying man's pulse was barely flickering, and that the close of the tragedy was very near at hand.

"IT'S GOD'S WILL," WERE HIS DYING WORDS.

At 10:04 o'clock the President was still conscious and as his wife kissed him farewell he said feebly: "It's God's Will." He then became unconscious and Dr. Mann gave his dying words to the anxious crowd at the newspaper tent on the lawn near the Milburn house.

DEATH CAME EARLY THIS MORNING.

The awful suspense in which the nation hung for hours was broken by the rude shock of an official announcement of the President's death at 2:16 this morning. No bulletin, other than the brief, but significant words of the fatal termination, was issued at that hour.

Everybody's Coming Home from Everywhere--

"Nowhere to come but back", and mighty glad of it. No nearer town in the world to come back to, and we all help to make it so, if we do say it ourselves.

Now you're home again, how about your clothes? Isn't your wardrobe a little depleted after the hard racket you have given your clothing during your outing? If so, we just want to remind you that our FALL and WINTER SUITS are in and waiting for you.

PROGRESSIVE

Spirit of Local Hibernian Lodges

Recognized by the National Organ of the Order.

Good Words Spoken by the National Hibernian for the Officers and Members of the Lima Divisions.

The National Hibernian, the official organ of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, contains the following reference to the two divisions of the order in this city:

The first county on our rolls is "Allen." The county president is W. J. O'Connor, an earnest, aggressive worker of the order. The two divisions in Lima have made phenomenal gains during the past year—the membership has increased from 90 to 190. This is not all. Each division has procured its own regalia and expects to reach the 300 mark before 1901 passes into history. Among our membership in Lima are many men holding responsible positions in the administration of city and county affairs. We feel confident at this time in asserting that when Allen county is called at Springfield in 1902 the report will show that she has trebled her membership during the year 1901. Sunday, Sept. 29, will be a memorable one in Allen county, as on this date a class of fifty candidates will pledge their fidelity to the cause of friendship, unity and christian charity.

PLEASED

Is the Congregation at Wellsville

With the Ability of Its New Pastor from Lima.

Rev. Clarence Mitchell Preached His Initial Sermon to His New Congregation on Last Sunday.

Writing to a fellow member of the Maccabees order, Rev. Clarence Mitchell, who recently accepted a call from a Wellsville, N. Y., congregation, says:

"Dear Bro.—Tell the Sir Knights I reached here O. K. and am highly pleased with the place and have one of the best congregations in N. Y. state. I want to thank you personally for the many kind things you did for me while at Lima and the Times-Democrat for many courtesies shown me. I shall always feel especially grateful. Fraternally, CLARENCE MITCHELL."

The Wellsville Daily Reporter, concerning Rev. Mitchell says: "The congregation Sunday greeted the new pastor of the Broad street church, Clarence Mitchell, by large audiences in the morning and evening and the mutual impression was favorable to all concerned. A peculiar feature of Mr. Mitchell's preaching his first sermon, was the meeting of the congregation and pastor for the first time as neither had previously seen the other and his engagement was founded wholly upon his work in the city of Lima, Ohio, which was conspicuously successful and stable and a matter of note in that state.

The congregation are certainly to be congratulated upon securing such an eloquent and enthusiastic young man as pastor and all who heard the sermon of yesterday are of this opinion. The congregation are planning to tender him a reception in a few days. Mr. Mitchell took an active part and was prominent in local and state work in Ohio as a member of the Odd Fellows lodge and the Maccabees.

INJURIES

That Were Sustained
by F. M. Brooks,

Terminated in His Death
Last Evening.

The Deceased Was a Veteran Member of the I. O. O. F.—Funeral Services to be Held Monday Morning.

The injuries received by F. M. Brooks, of south Jackson street, who fell from a scaffold at the Adgate pump station Wednesday, terminated in death yesterday afternoon shortly after 4:30 o'clock. Mr. Brooks was born in Jefferson county, O., in the summer of 1835. In that vicinity he grew to young and vigorous manhood. In 1869 he became a member of the order of Odd Fellows and continued an active member up to the time of his unfortunate injury.

With his family, Mr. Brooks came to this city in 1882 and has made many staunch friends who will feel keenly the loss of an upright man.

Besides a wife, Mr. Brooks leaves five children. One son, Melville Brooks and two daughters, Mrs. D. A. Hoshanson and Miss Anna Brooks, are residents of Deshler, O.; Miss Eva Brooks and Mrs. Charles Thorsing are residents of Lima.

Funeral services will be held at the late residence Monday morning at 10 o'clock. At 11:57 o'clock the remains will be taken over the C. H. & D. to Ottawa for interment. One child now lies buried in the Ottawa cemetery.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

A daughter made her appearance today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ribby, Jr., of Halier street, and the little lady owns the premises. Probate Judge Miller goes to Mt. Clemens tomorrow and will take a two weeks course of treatment in the hope of being relieved of an attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. James Curtis and Mrs. Charles King, of Chicago, have returned home after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Coon, of south Central avenue. Mrs. Mary Peterson, of Delphos, is visiting friends in Lima.

WILL

Will Handle Two Excursions.

C. H. & D. Road

Will Take One Special
to Dayton

And Another to Toledo Which Comes From the Detroit Northern.

The C. H. & D. Will Also Have Two Special Trains Tomorrow. the Gentry Show and a Big Midway Co.

Several special trains will be handled tomorrow, including two excursions that will be turned over to the C. H. & D. by other roads. The Detroit Southern has a train coming from the south which will be transferred here for Toledo and the Findlay, Fort Wayne & Western has a special for the Dayton Soldier's Home. The Gentry dog and pony show will be handled from Bowling Green to Toledo, and a big Midway company will be carried from Toledo to Cincinnati.

Want the Best.

It is semi-officially announced that a number of resignations are expected from Lake Shore engineers, who have been investigating the officers of the Illinois Central, which needs more engineers, and has tacitly admitted that it preferred men who have proved satisfactory to the Lake Shore. The Illinois Central has two inducements that appeal strongly to the prospective recruits: The pension system and the rapid advancement of engineers due to the fact that on some portions of the line only negro firemen are employed, and these are never promoted to engineers.

C. H. & D. Notes.

Conductor Collier has been granted a day off to assist in entertaining some visitors from Chicago. While absent conductor Byers will be on the 20 car. Conductor Wise is in Cincinnati, being fitted for his new uniform. He returns in time today he will be assigned to one of the excursion trains tomorrow.

Assistant Superintendent Shoemaker returned this afternoon from his vacation. Conductor Armstrong, who accompanied him, arrived a few days earlier and has told all the fish stories.

Chas. E. Esher, a former brakeman on the C. H. & D., is spending a few days in Lima. He is now connected with the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern, in the same capacity and resides at Marietta.

Dispatcher George Keel, who has been acting as chief in the absence of Mr. Louy, who is at Mt. Clemens, is hardly able to be at work owing to a severe cold which has settled in his throat.

Fred Cole, of Shelby county, has sued the C. H. & D. railway company for $15,000 damages for injuries received in the accident at Johnston's, near Dayton, April 24. In the accident the plaintiff lost one of his eyes and had his face badly disfigured.

One of the quickest, as well as the best jobs ever done in the C. H. & D. shops, was performed on passenger engine 102 this week. She was taken into the mechanical hospital Monday and today made a trial trip with an entire new set of flues, in addition to a number of other repairs and a complete outside finish.

General Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Branson, of Clear Lake, Iowa, are the guests of the formers' cousin, engineer Charlie Reid, on north Jefferson street.

Wilbur Evans of Fort Wayne, a fireman on the Pennsylvania has returned home after a visit of several days in Lima where he formerly resided.

The engine on the Lima-Marion local on the C. & E. road broke down yesterday morning and the train did not arrive here on the return trip until an early hour this morning.

The Duke and Duchess of York have arrived in Canada, and will soon start on their tour of that country and the United States. They will take possession of the handsome private car, which was described recently by the Times-Democrat, leaving Halifax within the next few days.

Charlie Gaudert, a son of Erie Conductor Conrad Gaudert, of Marion, and who was employed as a brakeman on the same road, was buried yesterday. His death was due to an accident at Mansfield, Wednesday night. While coupling cars he was caught and terribly crushed, but lived several hours.

Sparrows have proven themselves to be a nuisance in more ways than one, but the latest complaints are the enginemen who say that the feathered pests are packing the spouts of the water tanks with straw and rubbish, and sometimes a half bushel or more is carried into the tanks, to the great inconvenience of the engineer when in need of water.

IMPORTANT

Change Soon to Take Place in South Lima.

The people of Lima and especially those residing on the south side, will perhaps be surprised and undoubtedly pleased to learn that J. M. Arndt has purchased the complete grocery stock of Simon Speilacy on south Main street and will move his present stock to south Lima.

The combined stocks under the supervision of Mr. Arndt, will make as fine a grocery as there is in the city. Mr. Arndt says he will do his best to establish in south Lima one of the largest and leading grocery stores in that part of Lima.

In the past, Mr. Arndt has always endeavored, through conciliatory methods to give his patrons entire satisfaction; hence his success so far. The south Lima people and in fact all Lima is to be congratulated upon having such a complete grocery store as the new Arndt grocery is destined to be.

Although terms have been agreed upon, it will be impossible for the change to take place before September 18th. At that time Mr. Arndt will be ready to meet all his old patrons and many new ones.

TOLD IN LIMA.

As the Evidence of Lima People Published in Troy Papers That Has Made Such a Reputation For Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Standing clear and distinct, marking the difference, the superior merit, the adaptability to present day ailments is the volume of local testimony for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

So different to the ordinary remedies referring to cures made at different points which it is hard to verify. There is a reason for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills commanding home evidence wherever they are known. It is their wonderful influence in bringing up the standard of Nerve force.

Mrs. Flora Miller of Reece avenue, Lima, Ohio, says: "I had a pain and a lump in the right side near the liver. Nothing helped me, no medicine or doctor seemed to reach it. I ran down in strength and grew very nervous. Finally my mother called my attention to Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and I got some at Melville's drug store and the lump and pain went away rapidly and in addition to this, I grew strong and healthy every day. The result after so many failures is wonderful and I am more than pleased."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50¢ a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, M. D. are on every package.

Paper Published in This City to Give Tidings

To the People of the President's Death.

Times-Democrat Issued an Edition at 2 O'clock This Morning.

Thirty Minutes After the Information was Received That the Lamented President Had Breathed His Last.

The Times-Democrat was the first Lima newspaper on the streets of this city announcing the death of President McKinley, after that melancholy event occurred early this morning.

The announcement of the president's death at 2:16 o'clock was received by the Times-Democrat at 1:30 o'clock a. m., and in fifteen minutes after that time our morning edition was upon the street, containing a full account of the last sad hours at the Milburn home where the martyred president had breathed his last. This is a bit of journalistic enterprise which has never been equaled in Lima.

In order that our entire constituency throughout the city of Lima might be furnished with full information concerning the calamity which had befallen the nation our full force of carrier boys was called in at 5 o'clock a. m., and our morning extra edition delivered over the regular routes.

There is no news service that is too good for the Times readers, and knowing that all were on the qui vive to know about the fate of the president we furnished them this bit of information through the medium of an extra edition twelve hours in advance of our usual hours of publication.

The Times-Democrat prides itself upon the reliability of its matter, and although last night the streets were filled with rumors that the president's death had occurred during the evening, the unfounded rumors were not even belittled at this office, and not until the Scribbs-McRae Press Association brought us the absolute fact of the president's death did we give that information to the public.

The journalistic enterprise of the Times-Democrat displayed upon this very important epoch in the country's
